To whom it may concern:

It is my privilege to recommend to you Richard Tatum. I have been friends with Richard for several years. He is a man who studies to show himself approved rightly dividing the word of God.

I have found Richard to be a multi-talented individual, intelligent, with finesse and wisdom. He is a hard working individual with faithfulness.

Richard has spoken in my church and I thoroughly enjoyed, not only his teaching style, but his depth in the word of God. In conversation with Richard I have been impressed with his desire and ability to dig deep into the things of God and yet, his ability to make them simply understood.

Richard seems to have a superior talent for using modern and internet media to reach people and promote the gospel. His knowledge of computer is superior to most.

I really do not know of a position in the church I wouldn't recommend Richard for. I think this man can do anything he sets his mind to do.

Sincerely
